

Innovision 2011

Salesian College, Siliguri Campus for the first time in North Bengal organized an Inter College Fest , “INNOVISION-2011”, on 30th September 2011 in collaboration with City Centre, Siliguri for a noble cause in order to raise funds to help the Earthquake Victims affected by the 18th September quake. This was the first of its kind of event to be held. Altogether 7 colleges from North Bengal participated in the Fest among whom were Ghoom Jorebunglow, Mirik College, Birpara College, SIT and others.

The day started off with ushering in of the Guests and participants, followed by the opening song by the college choir. The Fest's inaugural event was Impromptu- an extempore competition, followed by Raga Saga- solo singing completion. The events were also viewed by passers by. The fest went on with Acapella followed by Foot Loose- a dance competition [Solo & Group] prior to the Lunch Break. Prominent persons from the field of Cine art like Tikam Chand, music masters like Kalyan SJ and Edward SJ were at the venue as judges for the day.

The Lunch Break was followed by outdoor events like Step- Up – a Fashion Show contest which was watched eagerly by the viewers and Pedal to the Metal- a Rock Band Competition. The items of the Fest were judged by Experts from the respective fields. After all the items, prizes were given away by Dr Minakshi Chakraborty, Development Officer, NBU, Fr MA Joseph, Rector & Principal Don Bosco School, Siliguri, Fr.[Dr.] George Thadathil, Principal, Salesian College and Fr. Nirmol Gomes, Vice Principal, Salesian College.

Southfield College, Darjeeling, were adjudged the overall winners of the Fest, Salesian College Sonada were adjudged the Ist runner's up and Salesian College Siliguri were adjudged the 2nd Runner's up.

The response for the Fest was very encouraging and Salesian College plans to hold more such events in the near future for charitable causes. The interactive mood of the day was something that all – participants and organizers alike – enjoyed and will cherish for some time to come. In organizing the event, the leadership was taken by the final year students of Salesian College Siliguri Campus under the guidance of the Professors.

Shomik Saha & Amit Ghosh Roy

