

COLLEGE WEEK 2012 – 2013

For the session 2012-13, we began the College Week on 19th January. The opening ceremony took place at 11:20 am in the College Stadium with Fr. (Dr.) James Chacko being the chief guest of the inaugural ceremony and all the staff and students were gathered for the event. After he declared the college week open, the student council led the students to march, followed by Tony Thomas, the Best Sportsman of SCSC 2012 as the torch bearer for the occasion.

The whole College was divided into two teams i.e. 'A' and 'B'. Team 'A' consisted of Bosco club, Literary club, Computer club and Nature club. Similarly Team 'B' consisted of Fine Arts club, Finance & Event Management club, Music club and Sports club. We began the college week with the throw ball match (girls) wherein Team 'A' bagged the championship title. It was followed by the volley ball match (boys) and once again Team 'A' of the boy's team won the set. Lastly for the day, we had cricket match for girls and Team 'B' came out victorious over Team 'A'.

On 21st January, we began the day with an interesting match of basket ball for boys & girls in which Teams 'A' of the both category claimed their titles as champions. It was then followed by cricket match for boy's wherein team 'B' won the match. After a short break, we came to the last event of the day which was 100 m race, 200 m, 800 m race and relay race for both girls and boys. All the participants took part with gusto and enthusiasm in all these events.

On 22nd January, the events held were discus throw, short put, long jump, high jump and tug-o-war wherein student enthusiastically took part. At the end of the event, we all went to help the arrangement and preparation for the college day at the College auditorium. Overall, it was wonderful to see students giving their best by putting their effort as a team irrespective of class, course or club and even the audience cheered and supported with heart and soul for their respective teams. And all professors supported their team.

Finally, the College Day arrived i.e. 23rd January, when along with the celebration of Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose's birthday, the College celebrated in advance the Don Bosco's fest and College Day together. The chief guest of the day was Dr. Minakshi Chakraborty, Development Officer of the University of North Bengal. With the welcoming and lighting of the lamp, we had selected all the best performances of dances and songs and hymns to be performed on the occasion. Fr. (Dr) George Thadathil, the Principal of the College presented the Annual Report which gave a very positive and heartening picture of the College in the past one academic year. The College day came to the conclusion with the prize and award distribution of various academic cultural and sports events that were organized throughout 2012 – 2013, wherein all the winners received their awards and prizes

