

RUGBY WINTER CAMP 2013

A week-long Rugby Winter Camp was organized at Saraswatipur by the Jungle Crows Foundation from 27 December 2013 to 2 January 2014 under the able leadership of Amirul and Sanu Das. Nearly 400 children of the village took part in the camp conducted daily in the morning from 7 am to 9 am. The children were divided into 20 groups and 20 senior boys and girls were trained to be coaches and actively conducted the camp to the great joy and satisfaction of all the children. The camp culminated in a one day tournament on 6 January 2014 hosted by Salesian College Siliguri Campus. The tournament was inaugurated by Fr. George Thadathil, the Principal of the college in the presence of Fr. Nirmol Gomes Rector and Provincial designate and other dignitaries. The Sports Cell of Salesian College lent their helping hand in the organization of the tournament. Mr. Sailen Tudu and Harinder Singh from Jungle Crows Foundation Kolkata came all the way to lend a helping hand. The programme ended at 4 pm and a friendship meal was served to all the participants and organizers. It was indeed a great experience for all the children of village, many of them coming out of the village for the first time in their life.
