

Guest Lecture on 'Attitudes and Adversity'

On 4 February, 2016 Mr. Nirmal Joshi, Author and Educator, conducted a session on "Attitude and Adversity, and Non-Partisan Thought Process for a Successful Career" at Salesian College, Siliguri Campus. The session was attended by both the students of BBA and BCA departments, and the departmental faculty members. The welcome address was delivered by Mr. Anirban Ghosh, Assistant Professor, Department of Management Studies. Mr. Joshi focused on the necessity of positive attitude for an individual to succeed in life and to have a successful career. A video from the film Invictus narrating the poem about one being master of one's life was highlighted. The session also focused on the effects of Parallax View in our day to day life. The students enjoyed the discussion on the various aspects of positive, negative and neutral attitudes. The talks and videos engaged the students who interacted intensely with the resource person. A couple of famous songs were also played at the end of the programme to show how one should seek for knowledge and learning through entertainment. The session ended with a vote of thanks by Ms. Neha Gouti, first year BBA student. A group photograph at the college portico brought the event to its end.

Reported by

Anirban Ghosh, Asst. Prof. & Placement Coordinator, SCSC