

NSS unit Salesian college Siliguri campus participated in a rally against atrocities on woman.

28 NOVEMBER 2015, Siliguri: The NSS unit of Salesian college, Siliguri campus participated in the rally organised by “ Young Brigade” against all form of atrocities on women. The rally started at 5 pm from Baghajatin Park to Airview More. The motto of the rally was to protest against “atrocities on women”. It was organized by the Salesian College Alumni and the Young Brigade. The local women and few school girls took initiative and walked the rally. A small speech was given by two members of Young Brigade. The student representative of NSS named Pooja Sharma was interviewed as to know the thoughts of today’s woman/girls. Then the rally began and ended with candle lightning at Airview More. The protest showed that the women will no more remain silent for the harassment and the tortures done to them mentally, physically and socially. The rally concluded with the thought that Young Brigade will fight back and stand beside the women of Siliguri in any small or big matters harming their esteem.
