

INITIATIVE FOR EXCHANGE PROGRAMME WITH NEWMAN UNIVERSITY, BIRMINGHAM, ENGLAND

On 30 November, 2015, a meeting was held at the Taj Vivanta Ambassador Hotel, New Delhi, between the representatives of Newman University, Birmingham, England and the representative of Salesian College Siliguri and Sonada. Birmingham University was represented by Dr. Paul Ryan, Associate Dean, School of Human Sciences; Dr. John Perkins, Head of Management and Information Technology and Professor Gautam Rajkhowa, Programme Director, Management Studies. Salesian College Siliguri and Sonada, was represented by Professor Anirban Ghosh, Faculty and Placement Coordinator, Management Studies. The agenda of the meeting included students and faculty exchange programmes between the two institutions and various other courses and research work that would be open for both the intuitions.

The second phase of the meeting was held on 3 December with Fr. (Prof.) George Thadathil, Principal, Salesian College Siliguri and Sonada, representing the college. The discussions left room for further deliberation on the MOU to be signed between the two institutions. The meetings on both the days were a positive step towards the collaborative programme between the two institutions.
