

Salesian College Siliguri won Skit Competition organized by NSS unit, North Bengal University on the theme “DIGITAL INDIA”

8 November 2016, Rabindra Bhanu Manch, North Bengal University: The NSS wing of North Bengal University had organized a workshop on DIGITAL INDIA. The workshop had four events Skit competition, Poster Making Competition, Idea Generation and Quiz. 20 affiliating colleges had participated in the workshop/competition. The workshop started at 9am with registration and continued till 5pm. The concept of digital India was introduced and was made well acquainted with its functions and facilities. Some of the facilities such as ‘e-sign’, ‘digital locker’, ‘e-hospital’, ‘skill development’, e-waste were explained.

Our college (Salesian College Siliguri) won the first position in the skit competition. The college presented the skit on e-waste. The programme coordinator, North Bengal University, Dr. Ujjwal Bhui congratulate the participants of Salesian College Siliguri and encouraged their participation in future.

Reported by-

Mouli Ghoroi

Mass Comm. and Journalism Dept.